Referendums - Thursday 5 May 2011

There are two referendums taking place on 5 May. A national referendum on the Alternative Voting (AV) system and a Council Referendum on an elected mayor.

These referendums are taking place across the whole of the Borough.

Polling hours are the same as the local elections and there will be 47 stations in total.

Alternative Voting System Referendum

For the Alternative Voting referendum residents will be asked whether they would rather see UK Parliament adopt an Alternative Voting (AV) system instead of the current First Past the Post system. AV would see voters ranking all the candidates in order of preference.

If a candidate receives more than half the number of first-preference votes cast then they are elected.

If no candidate gains a majority on first preferences, then the second-preference votes of the candidate who finished last on the first count are redistributed.

This process is repeated until someone gets over 50 per cent.

Local Elected Mayor Referendum

For the local Elected Mayor referendum, residents will be asked whether they would rather Great Yarmouth Borough Council adopt an Elected Mayor and Cabinet system as an executive decision making body, rather than the current Cabinet system

If the referendum result is a 'yes' majority then an election will be held, at a later date, to decide who the Elected Mayor would be.

Details of the Count

Friday 6 May 2011 starting at 9.00 am

Papers for all elections will be verified first (i.e. numbers checked against ballot boxes) Ballot papers cannot be sorted or counted until papers for all elections/referendums are verified.

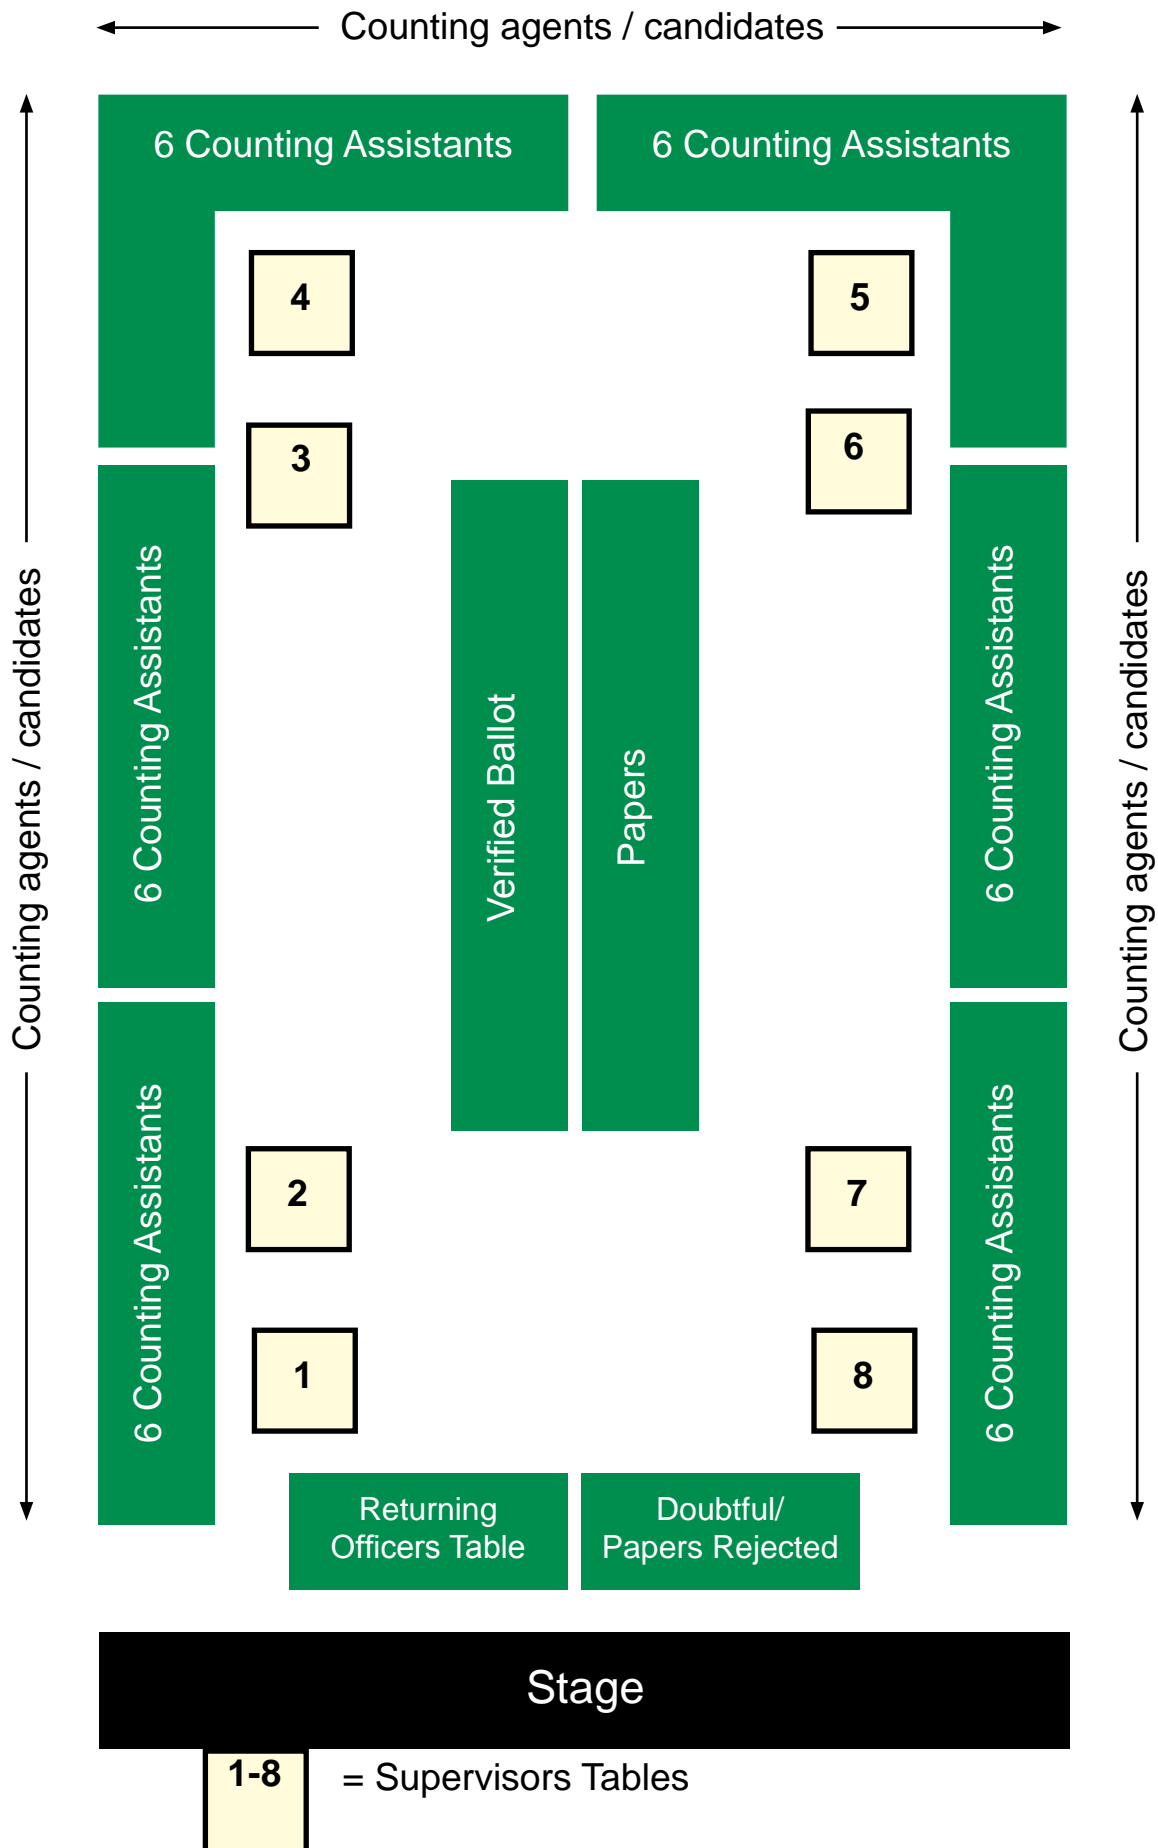

It is anticipated that all ballot papers will be verified by 1.00 pm.

- The local election papers (including Norfolk County Council and Parish) will be counted first
- The Mayoral papers will be counted second
- The AV papers will be counted last as we cannot begin to count these papers until 4.00 pm. Even if we are still counting local papers at this time we cannot delay starting to count the AV papers.

Candidates, agents and members of the press wishing to attend the count should note the following:

- Requests to attend the count should be forwarded to the elections team as soon as possible and in any event by 26 April 2011
- Anyone wishing to bring equipment or wishing to set up equipment will need to make special arrangements with the elections team before election day.
- The announcement of the result will be made by the Counting Officer on the stage. The announcement will take the form of the name of candidates (in alphabetical order) and number of votes cast for each candidate.
- The Mayor's Parlour (which adjoins the Assembly Room) is designated for the use of the media. This room must be used for all interviews and telephone calls.
- Mobile phones cannot be used in the main Assembly Room, when the verifying and counting of votes is taking place.
- No filming will be allowed without the consent of the Counting Officer and it will not be possible to allow close up camera shots of ballot papers being verified or counted.
- Photographers will be allowed close to the point where the declaration is made but they will not be permitted within the centre square of tables unless given the express consent by the Counting Officer.
