Grants by the Council of Exclusive Rights of Burial in grave spaces at its cemeteries are made subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. The position of the grave space shall be agreed with the Bereavement Services Manager.

2. The plot may be used for a period of fifty years only, and at the expiry of that period all rights of the grantee, (ie the person purchasing the right of burial) will cease.

3. If any dispute shall arise as to the date of expiry of the period for which exclusive rights of burial were granted by the Council, such date shall be ascertained by reference to records kept by the Council’s Bereavement Services Manager, and the date shown in those records shall be final, conclusive and binding.

4. The erection of memorials will be permitted, subject to dimensions and inscriptions being approved by the Council, and application for the erection of any memorial, together with full details of the proposed dimensions and inscription, must be submitted to the Bereavement Services Manager before it is erected. The fee payable for the right to erect the memorial will be in accordance with the scale of fees in force at the time of erection.

5. At the end of the said fifty years, the right to use the plot shall cease, and any person interested may, before the expiry of the said period, give to the Council’s Bereavement Services Manager at the Bereavement Services Office, notice in writing that he/she wishes to retain any memorial erected or placed on the plot. If no such notice is given, or if after notice has been given, the memorial is not within one month from the expiry of the period of fifty years, removed at the expense of the persons giving notice, the memorial may be removed and disposed of in such manner as the Council shall choose, and proof of posting of the said notice shall not be deemed to be proof of receipt thereof by the Council.

6. A deed of grant of exclusive rights of burial executed by the Council will at all times be accepted by the Council as evidence of the grantee’s title to the within mentioned rights of burial.

7. The grant will be subject to, in addition to these conditions, the provisions of the Local Government Act 1972, and the Local Authorities’ Cemeteries Order 1977, the Council’s Table of Fees and any Regulations in force for the time being respecting the cemetery or the portion thereof in which the plot which is subject to the grant is situated.

8. If any dispute shall arise in respect of any of the terms and conditions of this document, or in respect of the interpretation of the words and phrases used, the decision of the Council’s Secretary in such matters shall be final and conclusive and binding in the parties of this agreement.
